JANUARY
WEEK 2
INFANTS

Welcome to January

We're thrilled to continue this exciting month of learning with your little ones. This week, we'll dive into the wonders of Ice and Snow while enhancing sensory, motor, and social development. Here's what we have planned for Week 2.

This Week's Theme

- Theme: Ice and Snow
- Shape: Square
- Number: 2
- Color: Gray
- Letter: Aa

Activities and Highlights

- Language & Phonics: Read books like The Snowy Day and practice "Aa" sounds using flashcards and songs.
- Math & Science: Explore stacking blocks (square shapes), compare big and small gray objects, and observe glittery snow globes.
- Social Studies: Introduce the concept of "Unity" through group activities and observe Kwanzaa-inspired winter objects.
- Creative Arts: Create gray handprint art, explore high-contrast cards, and brushstrokes with gray water on paper.
- Motor Development: Practice tummy time with soft square toys, grasp gray scarves, and engage in sensory exploration with cold textured materials.

Reminders

- Label Everything: Please label all bottles, pacifiers, and extra clothes.
- Extra Clothes: Send weather-appropriate extra outfits for your child.
