JANUARY
WEEK 3
INFANTS

Welcome to January

We're excited to dive into another fun-filled week of learning with your little ones! This week, we will focus on celebrating the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr. through meaningful activities that promote exploration, social bonding, and sensory development.

This Week's Theme

- Theme: Martin Luther King Jr.
- Color: Blue
- Shape: Triangle
- Letter: Dd
- Number: 3

Activities and Highlights

- Language & Phonics: Read I Am Brave, practice "Dd" sounds with flashcards, and sing the "Dd" song with hand motions.
- Math & Science: Explore triangle-shaped toys, count up to 3, and observe mixing water and oil in sensory bags.
- Social Studies: Discover MLK-themed photo books, participate in mirror play, and explore multicultural dolls.
- Creative Arts: Crinkle blue paper, finger paint with blue, and create an "I Have a Dream" sensory bag.
- Motor Development: Practice tummy time with triangle toys, reach for scarves, and grasp triangle-shaped objects.

Reminders

- Label Everything: Please label all bottles, pacifiers, and extra clothes.
- Extra Clothes: Send weather-appropriate extra outfits for your child.
